Zion Artisan and Vendor Sale

On November 10, the fellowship hall was filled with artisans and vendors selling their fantastic goods. The Bistro Café lunch was again a huge hit with homemade soup, salad and sandwich.

Many thanks to those who came to the event to shop, have a relaxing lunch, purchase raffles tickets and take home delicious baked goods. Funds from the artisan/vendor sale will be used to purchase water filters for Haiti.

Saints in Light

Thank you for lighting the tree in remembrance and honoring the special people your life.

Keep the love lights glowing throughout the season and into next year.

Church Decorating

Sunday, November 25 – following worship.

Looking for at least one “ladder person” to help get the decorating supplies down from the storage shelves in the basement

Pick a task you enjoy, decorate any part of the church, Narthex, entry, etc. We’re usually done in less than 2 hours when everyone helps

Sunday, December 16 – 8:45 a.m.

The program will take place at the regular 8:45 service, followed by a reception in the Narthex. It’s a time when we have guests and extended family join us for worship.

Please bring food or beverage to share. In the past, there have been hot and cold hors d’oeuvres, fruit, cheese, sweets, juice, etc. It has always been quite a festive occasion!
