

Through Zion's Window

April 2019

Dear friends in Christ,

One of the ancient celebrations of the church has been declining for now for many years. Many traditions, the Presbyterian, Methodist, Episcopal, and our own ELCA, have been working to recover the celebration however our own society has made it quite the challenge. I am referring to the celebration of the "Triduum" (Tri-je-wum).

The Triduum is the 3-day feast that begins in the evening on Maundy Thursday comes to completion on Easter Sunday. For many centuries in the church these days were the highpoint of the year eclipsing all other celebrations, including Christmas.

However, in today's society, priorities have changed. In our lives God has taken a back seat to work, family, and even recreational time. No longer are other activities scheduled around worship, now we see if we can find the extra time for worship. This can be clearly seen even at Sunday morning worship, so it is no surprise that expecting people to "find time" for worship two more hours in a week seems to be an unreasonable stretch.

But this is our loss. Our relationship with God grows as we learn about what He has done for us. When we do not take the time to learn we begin to grow apart. Now Palm Sunday has become Palm/Passion Sunday. Instead of taking time during the week we give only one-hour Sunday morning worship and during this hour we try to tell the entire story from Jesus' triumphal entry in Jerusalem to his hanging on a cross. Doing it this way, in such a quick fashion, we end up stripping the emotion, the passion and the depth from the festival. Then the following Sunday, Easter, we celebrate his glorious resurrection. In doing all this in a mere two Sundays we lose so much of the story.

So, what happens on those three days? On Maundy Thursday (Maundy comes from the Latin word mandatum meaning commandment) Jesus gives us the commandment that we love one another as he has loved us as he washes his disciples' feet. On this day Jesus institutes, the Lord's Supper, Communion, that we celebrate every Sunday. And, of course, Jesus is betrayed and arrested in the Garden of Gethsemane. On Good Friday Jesus is tried and condemned by Pontius Pilate, the Roman Governor of Judea. Jesus is crucified on this day, dies and is placed in the tomb. Many churches are also recovering the practice of the Saturday Vigil. Remember how, as children, we could barely sleep Christmas Eve? We were too excited; we knew that this night was unlike any other, the morning would bring great things. This is how the Easter Vigil started. The congregation gathered in the darkness Saturday night with candles, too excited to sleep, awaiting the great news of Jesus' resurrection. Even though our Savior is in the tomb we hold the light and share the stories, anticipating the resurrection of our Lord. Historically in the church the forty days of Lent were a time of teaching new converts and during the Saturday Vigil the converts were baptized and welcomed into the congregation.

These are the events of those days of the Triduum. But what the Father and Jesus were up to was so much more. I invite all of you to join us in worship learn what happened during these days. Maundy Thursday is April 18th, we will worship together at Cross, and Good Friday is April 19th, and we will worship together, along with Holy Name of Jesus, at Zion. Holy Name will hold a Saturday service and we are all invited. Our Lord has done great things for us, let us set some time aside to hear the stories.
